

Issues in Florida.

Hurricane Wilma

... Many organizations, businesses, and homes have been devastated by Wilma. Many have been restored to their home and nearly normal lives. However, as of the date of this posting, the many of those who have been trying to rebuild are not yet done. Many religious, para-religious, and other groups have been providing a constant flow of volunteers and materials to help those in need.

... please submit information for posting in this area for our review and confirmation...